

Amy was nearly frantic. Her university roommate had told her that morning that she was pregnant and considering abortion. That very day Amy saw the Justice For All Exhibit.

She took an Exhibit brochure back to her dorm to show her roommate.

Kylie* (left) is alive today because of God's grace through Amy and all who make the Justice For All Exhibit possible.

* Name changed for privacy.