

Five Days in Northeast Kansas

Impact Report

JUSTICE FOR ALL

Sept. 2019

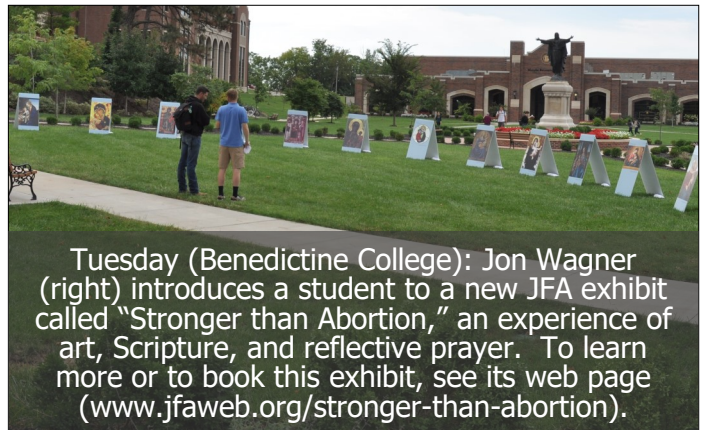

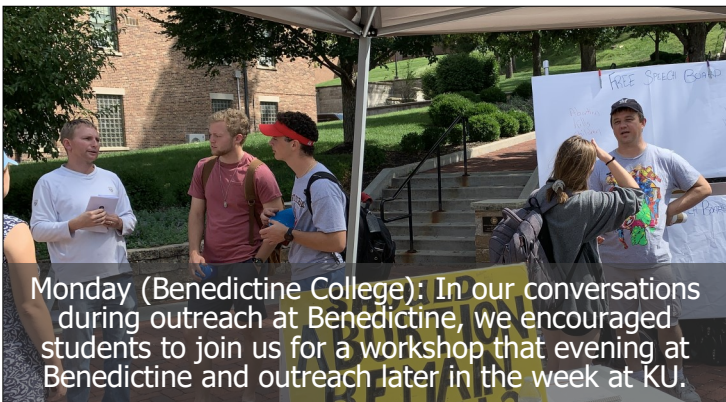

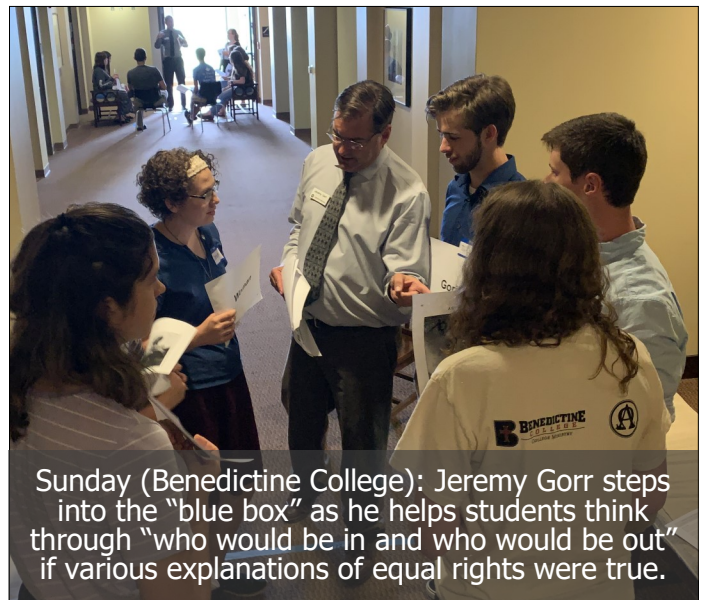

Training thousands to make abortion unthinkable for millions...

Our team gathered from all over the country a few weeks ago (September 8-12) to train students from Benedictine College in northeast Kansas and to conduct outreach with those students both at Benedictine and at the University of Kansas (KU).

This Impact Report gives you a glimpse of what our team accomplished during those five days. Please join us in praying for the students you see pictured here.

PRAY FOR CONVERSATIONS

Pray for Hearts to Be Softened so that Intellectual Arguments Can Do Their Work: Even as we train pro-life Christians to engage in dialogue using the best arguments and a habit of good listening, we realize that God changes the heart of a person to incline him to be open to the intellectual arguments we present. Pray for each person who watches ERI’s video (below), and please pray for the heart of each person impacted through our recent and upcoming events:

- September Events: Trinity University (TX), Benedictine College (KS), University of Kansas (KS), University of Houston (TX), Pittsburg State (KS)
- Oct. 10-13: Seminars in Colorado
- Oct. 15, 21: Outreach at George Mason University in Virginia
- Oct. 27: Workshop in Michigan
- Oct. 31-Nov. 5: Various events in Oklahoma, including outreach at OU

PREPARE FOR AND START CONVERSATIONS

Featured Resource for Equipping Yourself: Five years ago, JFA released a working paper to respond to the strongest versions of bodily rights arguments for abortion (www.jfaweb.org/dfg). Equal Rights Institute (ERI) recently released a video featuring one of the contributors to that paper, Timothy Brahm (former staff member of both JFA and ERI), which takes a different approach than our paper, one that we think is more helpful in some ways. It’s called, “Blood Donation and Bodily Rights Arguments.” Some of our staff members think it’s even better than our paper. In twelve minutes, Tim deftly responds to the most common challenges and gives you a framework that you can apply to all bodily rights arguments, including the most difficult versions. (Indeed, he also shares some reasons why our original paper may not be the most persuasive – helpful critique that we welcome!) JFA’s “It’s Her Body” series last year (www.jfaweb.org/its-her-body) set the appropriate context for any discussion of bodily rights. Pairing ERI’s video with “It’s Her Body” will give you a great primer on bodily rights, as well as a great conversation starter (see below).

- Watch and Share ERI’s Video: www.jfaweb.org/12-minutes-on-bodily-rights
- Share the “It’s Her Body” Series: www.jfaweb.org/its-her-body

Featured Conversation Starter: We think sharing Tim’s video is a great way to start a conversation about abortion with a friend. Tim is fair to the opposing viewpoint, but his point is also hard-hitting. Note that some viewers might object to Tim’s use of the word “freakin” in a few places in this video. We suggest you watch it first and judge if it will be a good thing to share with a friend. In addition, since this is an intellectual approach to bodily rights arguments, you might find that sharing the “It’s Her Body” series described above would make for a good introduction.

What can I do to love every human involved in unwanted pregnancy?

About the Loving Every Human Being with JFA Resource Bulletin

Friends of JFA ask, “What can I do to love every human involved in unwanted pregnancy?” This resource bulletin offers some answers. Supporting JFA financially enables JFA’s trainers and volunteers to create conversations that kindle affection for unborn children and their parents, but beyond that, you can PRAY for conversations the JFA community is creating, PREPARE for conversations, and START conversations.

Pray for conversations. Prepare for conversations. Start conversations.
