Saving Lives in 2013

JUSTICE
FOR ALL

Last year I met parents who were not simply abortion-vulnerable . . . they were abortion-determined! Your financial support and empowerment through prayer in 2013 allowed me to reach them in time.

Below and on the back are pictures of two kids out of more than a dozen that you helped to save. Thank you!

Prayer & Praise:

- We are happy to announce that Baby Nels #5 is here and, sadly, will get "personhood" in the eyes of the law only upon being born in late August.
- I'm excited about working with more crisis pregnancy centers & churches this year to make abortion unthinkable.
- Just after New Year's our family attended a baby shower for a young woman whom we helped to decide not to go through with her scheduled abortion.
- Brit is having a hard time keeping things down. Why do they call it morning sickness when it lasts 24/7?
- A Chinese woman I know has decided against abortion, but she has nowhere to stay. She fears a forced abortion if she goes back to China.
- Please pray for God to give me wisdom in managing my time with work and family.

His name is "Psycho," a struggling man who needs lots of help, and we're doing everything we can. Yes, this is his baby. If you missed the story of how he became a father, check out my previous newsletter at www.jfaweb.org/Nels/Psycho.

This precious little one is alive because a man who is not her biological father stepped up just like Joseph did for Mary. Read more at www.jfaweb.org/Nels/Joseph.

We trained hundreds of volunteers in 2013 to speak the truth in love about abortion. One by one we are making abortion unthinkable. We may never know all of the ways that God has changed hearts and saved lives through the Justice For All training program.
