

Four Years Later: The Same Mission

Four years ago I trusted my brother and came to a JFA outreach in Texas.

My first conversation at a JFA event! Here I am talking to Nikki in San Antonio in 2005.

Now after participating in thirty campus outreaches with JFA, I still have the same mission that I was a part of in San Antonio and Austin in 2005.

The current JFA mission is to train thousands to make abortion unthinkable for millions, one person at a time. The mission was essentially the same in 2005 ("train thousands" was implied) and I'm thrilled to be part of it.

During campus outreaches over the last four years I have challenged pro-choice folks to

Now, four years later, I still make the most of every conversation but now I also train others to do the same.

reconsider their position and I have challenged and motivated pro-lifers to work more passionately to change hearts and save lives.

I still do the same (with much more skill due to hundreds of hours of practice) but I also mentor our volunteers as they lovingly challenge people as well. I have been training them to impact others during our outreaches and in their everyday lives!

Here I am (facing crowd) in San Antonio in 2009. I was just addressing one person at this point but many others were watching and listening in including several of our volunteers.

It will take an eternity for the unborn to defend themselves

Stephen and I in 2005! Stephen addressed a doctor while I watched and offered support.

with Justice For All. In 2009 Stephen moved to Wichita, KS to join our staff as the Director of Training. Usually I am following after Stephen but I finally took the lead! I'm stoked that he followed.

I am thrilled to be working and living in the same city at Stephen. He has been strengthening each of our speakers and has helped us grow as a training team.

I've learned to ask great questions, listen well, and build common ground in many conversations involving the issue of abortion. Now, four years later I still make the most of every conversation but now I also train others to do the same.

In 2005 I chose to attend the San Antonio and Austin outreaches because of my brother Stephen's previous encounters Stephen and I in 2009! Stephen is on the open mic while I engage some students in dialogue.

Prayer Requests and Praise Reports for April 2009

- Praise God for allowing me to do this work over the last four years!
- Praise God for our training at Focus on the Family Institute (Monday, April 13th).
- Prayer for our training opportunities with high schools near Pasadena and San Diego.
- Prayer for changed hearts and minds at our CU-Boulder outreach (Apr. 13-16).
- Praise God for Sarah Andersen who leads the club that invited us to Boulder, CO.

For four years your prayers and donations have been such an immense encouragement to me. Many of you have faithfully supported me since I went to Texas in 2005! Others have helped since 2007. I am so privileged to be able to represent you as I continue to help JFA accomplish its life saving mission.

Defending Human Value together,

Jonathan Wagner
Jonathan Wagner

113 N. Martinson
Wichita, KS 67203

316-683-6426(work)
805-464-1146(cell)

jwagner@jfaweb.org (email)
www.jfaweb.org (website)