

Changing Hearts, Saving Lives

Catherine's January Update

Dear friends,

January 26, 2009

The power of ONE invitation!

I'm sitting on the floor of my room in Ventura with just a laptop and a few boxes scattered around. Everything else is waiting for me in Wichita, Kansas. This week I say goodbye to my hometown and embark on a mission to "train thousands to make abortion unthinkable for millions"... all because of one little email.

Three years ago, my friend Reva and I got an email invitation from her dad, Les Studer, to attend Justice For All's training seminar, "Abortion: From Debate to Dialogue". Since then she and I have dialogued with hundreds of people on campuses around the country, sharing the truth about abortion and comforting hurting students in their grief. We've helped present segments of JFA's seminar. Here at home we've made presentations to over 1,000 high school students and young adults and hosted a local pro-life training day.

Reva and a student at the University of New Mexico.

Now, thanks to my generous team of financial supporters, I'm within 15% of my goal and will start working full-time with JFA next week. I can't help thinking how different my life would be if Les had simply not sent us that invitation, and how grateful I am that he did! SO, will you join us for one of JFA's spring 2009 outreaches? Will you invite someone else to come, too? Will you boldly and lovingly defend the lives of unborn children?

Thank you and God bless you for all of your encouragement, support and prayers!

Peace,

Catherine Wurts
