

Personal Update: I wanted to let you all know that I have been in a romantic relationship with an amazing woman, Corinn (pronounced kerr-in) Schantz, since December 2012. Since we are getting more serious and because we would love your prayers, I wanted to send over this personal update and a recent picture of us. Please pray that we would have clarity and wisdom as we consider our future, and pray that our relationship would glorify Christ.
