

Four Reasons Georgia Rocked!

University of Georgia-Athens
Spring of 2007

UGA STUDENT LEADERSHIP

Ryan Griffin (far left ) rocked as a club president—he started the pro-life campus club, reserved the Exhibit space, recruited students, scheduled events, and found a president to replace him after graduation.

Although the outreach went well, his best story came as part of a classroom application after we had left. Ryan explained to me that shortly after the exhibit he had a group project in his Social Work class in which his group had to analyze the landmark Supreme Court abortion case, Roe vs. Wade.

One of the women in his group was particularly angry at him for sponsoring the JFA exhibit. Throughout the class he was able to dialogue with this woman. They built significant common ground throughout the project.

After the project she told Ryan that her view on abortion had completely changed. She apologized for her poor treatment of him earlier in the Spring. Ryan highlighted to me, “she has developed a boldness and confidence in her pro-life stance that she never had with any pro-choice view prior to our project.”

“She has developed a boldness and confidence in her pro-life stance that she never had with her pro-choice view prior to our project.” - Ryan Griffin, JFA Student Club President - UGA

Ryan had been trying to develop a relationship with this girl in particular for two years, and prayed for opportunities to minister to her. The healthy tension of the JFA exhibit outreach provided him with the background to discuss disagreements and build common ground.

I'm sure that you share my excitement that Ryan will be a consistent and classy ambassador wherever he is, living out the principles of asking good questions and listening he learned through the JFA Exhibit training and outreach.

It will take an eternity for the unborn to defend themselves

STUDENT VOLUNTEERS

Impact360 & JFA Spring Break Missions trip students --> Impact360 is a year-long Christian worldview and leadership institute begun by Chick-fil-A founder, Truett Cathy, that is based in Georgia. This was their first institute class—every Impact360 student attended the JFA Exhibit outreach. Many veteran JFA volunteers joined us out on campus as well. As a group they directly affected around 300 people (in personal conversations) and they helped JFA affect potentially 30,000 students at UGA.

CAMPUS MINISTRY LEADERSHIP

<----Chappy Hines and Sky Pratt: Sky (middle), College pastor at Prince Avenue Baptist, allowed our director, David Lee, to speak to his campus student club. Chappy (far right), UGA football team chaplain, was the one who convinced Sky to invite David. Their willingness to attend training and the outreach empowered their students to follow their leadership.

YOU! - MY SUPPORT TEAM

Without you and my entire support team I would not be able to help others grow from this great opportunity or even grow myself. Without the general support team of JFA we could never afford this and many other trips as well. Thanks for helping make this trip possible.

I was able to be effective at UGA because of all of you who support me with prayer and finances.

Defending Human Value together,

Jonathan Wagner

Praises and Prayers

- I will represent JFA at the Reclaiming Oklahoma For Christ conference on July 14.
- Ryan Griffin—he has graduated from UGA and is moving to Colorado to complete a master's degree in counseling.
- Sky Pratt and Chappy Hines-They both lead influential ministries on and around the University of Georgia campus.

How we are able to make an impact on a campus like Georgia

- Recruit student leaders like Ryan to form campus organization and invite JFA.
- Reserve prime exhibit location on campus.
- Recruit fellow student-volunteers to attend pre-exhibit training seminar.
- Recruit campus and community support.
- Through your support and prayers.
