

Note for May 1 letter: My continued story on our time in Georgia is postponed until my letter next month.

Prayer Requests and Praise Reports:

- We are searching for ministries and students to help us form a pro-life group in Stillwater, OK.
- A new club was started at CU-Boulder and the members are very excited to challenge their campus!
- Pray for several Colorado high schools that have shown interest in our program.
- I will be in Georgia this week encouraging and instructing two JFA staff on support raising.
- At least two lives were saved at our outreach in San Antonio.
- I was able to share my faith with a volunteer of ours in Colorado who admitted she did not know God.
