

"My parents barely know I exist! My dad doesn't even know where I go to school." Years of anger and frustration spilled out of the young woman vehemently standing for 'choice' on her campus. Betty Ann's loving response: "Oh my dear girl, do you know that God knows you exist. He knows where you go to school. He knows every hair on your head, He knows everything you've ever done, and He loves you anyway."

Nearly forty-five minutes of dialogue about abortion opened the door for truth to pour forth into one young woman's life. This conversation is one of literally thousands that have occurred as the result of a Justice For All (JFA) Exhibit event.

I have now been with JFA for six months. My experiences have humbled, grown, challenged, and changed me. I have felt the prayers of the saints as we battle together against Satan's schemes in our world. I have seen God bring healing to hurting, confused souls. I have seen those I thought most lost have their eyes opened to God's Word and His power!

As a new full-time staff member, my responsibilities include:

- Campus advance work – working with students to sponsor the Exhibit on their campus;
- Recruiting student and ministry support for each Exhibit outreach (click here to see the 2006-2007 Exhibit Schedule);
- Managing the public relations work of the Exhibit program; and
- Traveling with the Exhibit to engage people opposed to Christ and His truth in a Christ-like manner.

Along with this new position, God has opened a new opportunity for you! All of the JFA field staff raise their support through those who believe in the mission of Justice For All and in the individual staff person. Would you prayerfully consider joining my financial support team?

Your partnership – through both prayer and finances – enables the Justice For All staff to reach literally hundreds of thousands of college students every year with Truth. My commitment to you is to share their stories with you through monthly newsletters and prayer updates, so you can see just how God is using your resources to change others' lives!

Please email me (rebeccah@jfaweb.org) or call me toll-free (800.281.6426) if you have any questions or would like more information! Your partnership would be such a blessing to me!

Only by grace,
Rebeccah
