

An Invitation to Partner with Me

KRISTINE HUNERWADEL'S JFA UPDATE

OCTOBER 2024

Dear Friend,

As you know, I've been passionate for many years about caring for people impacted by abortion, and I'm thrilled to have the chance to keep caring for them now as an employee of Justice For All (JFA).

Justice For All is a non-profit pro-life organization that trains pro-life advocates to dialogue about abortion in a manner that respects the dignity of the unborn child, the woman in distress, and the person who disagrees, all at the same time. Our team travels to college campuses nationwide to engage people of various perspectives in conversations aimed at making elective abortions unthinkable. I've been able to participate as a trainer and speaker in a number of JFA seminars and workshops so far, first as a volunteer and now as a staff member, and I've also participated in several days of outreach events on seven college campuses in Colorado and California.

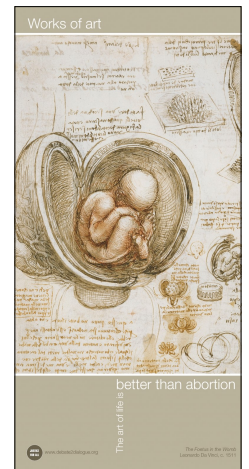

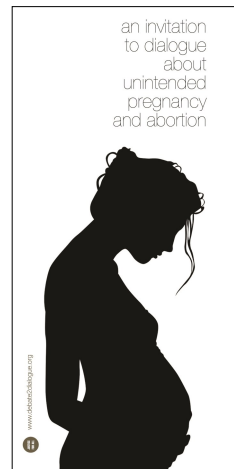

Over the past five years, I've experienced JFA's training, and now I'm excited to share that same training with others. JFA's approach to conversations has helped me become a better advocate for unborn children at risk, and it's also regularly opened up doors for me to share God's mercy and love with people who are hurting and don't know Him yet. I think, for example, about "Ella," who was visibly angry and anxious when we started to talk, but then opened up about her personal experiences, leading to a deeper spiritual conversation. The same thing happened in another conversation with "Lou."

I'm writing to ask you: would you care with me for the human beings impacted by abortion and for the work God is doing through JFA in Colorado and across the country? Would you consider supporting my work financially and praying for my work? JFA relies solely on donations to accomplish its mission, and with your help I can fully devote myself to the task of training Christians to create conversations that we trust God will use to save lives, change hearts, and heal wounds.

I would love to meet with you in the coming weeks to see if you're interested in partnering with me and to answer any questions you have. Also, if you'd like to support my work now, you can go to jfaweb.org/donate to set up an automatic recurring gift or to give a special gift using a credit card or electronic bank draft. You can also send in the enclosed pledge form or call the JFA office (316.683.6426) for help giving over the phone.

Thank you for considering this and for continuing to pray for me. It means a lot to me!
