

21 February 2011

To Whom It May Concern:

I write to you regarding the work of Mr. Paul G. Kulas for Justice for All. Paul Kulas is a devout Catholic and a native of the Diocese of La Crosse, of which I was a priest and which I served as Bishop from February 22, 1995 to January 26, 2004.

Justice for All is an organization which devotes itself to work on college and university campuses, campus ministry programs, and high schools, in order to engage students' minds and hearts regarding the reality of abortion. In a particular way, Justice for All seeks to train high school and college-aged students, so that they are equipped to be "loving ambassadors for Christ in the pro-life movement."

I have followed the work of the Justice for All for many years now, and can testify to its doctrinal integrity. I thank you, in advance, for whatever attention you may be able to give to my letter of recommendation of Justice for All.

Invoking God's blessing upon you, I remain

Yours devotedly in Christ,

Raymond Leo Cardinal Burke
Archbishop Emeritus of Saint Louis
Prefect, Supreme Tribunal of the Apostolic Signatura
