January 25, 2006 – Feast of the Conversion of Saint Paul

The Most Reverend Thomas J. Olmsted
Diocese of Phoenix
400 E. Monroe Street
Phoenix, Arizona 85004-2336

Your Excellency,

I write to you regarding the work of Mr. Paul G. Kulas for Justice for All. Paul Kulas is a devout Catholic and a native of the Diocese of La Crosse, of which I was a priest and which I served as Bishop from February 22, 1995 to January 26, 2004.

Justice for All is an organization which devotes itself to work on college and university campuses to engage students' minds and hearts regarding the reality of abortion. Paul Kulas has devoted himself to this work, in one form or another, for a number of years now. I have always tried to give him good support. I enclose for you some documentation regarding Justice for All.

Paul Kulas would very much like to meet with you regarding the work of Justice for All in the Diocese of Phoenix. If it is possible, I recommend your meeting with Paul. I will inform him that I have written to you, so that he, in turn, may make an appropriate contact with you, to see whether it would be possible to visit with you.

I am happy to have the occasion to express to you my profoundest fraternal esteem and to assure you of my prayers for you in meeting the many challenges which you face. At the same time, I ask a remembrance in your prayers.

I thank you, in advance, for whatever consideration you may be able to give to Paul Kulas.

With sentiments of deepest gratitude esteem and gratitude, I remain

Yours sincerely in Christ,

+ Raymond L. Burke

(Most Rev.) Raymond L. Burke
Archbishop of Saint Louis
