

To Whom It May Concern:

I am writing in recommendation of Justice For All (JFA) and my friend John Michener, one of their directors.

I was first introduced to JFA's work when we had them speak at Reclaiming Oklahoma for Christ in 2006. In 2007 we offered the full JFA training program to our church, including the interactive seminar and two days of outreach at the University of Central Oklahoma. Since that time we have maintained a relationship with JFA, again offering training to our church in 2013, and supporting John Michener as one of our domestic missionaries.

I can't give a higher recommendation for any group than what I give for Justice For All. Their displays, which are used to start dialogue, are captivating and draw attention at the outreach, and all that attention is put to good use by the volunteers are thoroughly equipped to share the truth about abortion thanks to the interactive seminar that JFA provides in conjunction with every outreach. That seminar taught our people how to have dialogue, rather than debates. Quite frankly, those lessons have made me a better preacher as I have used the same techniques in other venues.

While on campus we had intelligent discussions with everyone we met, whether it was students, philosophy professors, or administrators. I remember after an extended conversation with a member of the UCO staff, we shook hands and he said that our conversation was the best discussion he had ever had with someone of my viewpoint. I also remember several young ladies who personally thanked me for coming. After hearing me out, one sophomore said, "That is what I always thought about abortion, but this SEALED IT!" Praise the Lord!

Again, I heartily recommend the JFA training program for your church, school, or small group. Please call me if you have any questions.

Sincerely,
