

"Thank you so much for your gracious, non-judgmental way of talking to me. You are the first pro-life person I've ever talked to that has helped me to understand the pro-life view. I feel like I have to rethink my entire standpoint on abortion." – Post-abortive student talking to a JFA staff member

July 10, 2012

Dear Friends,

God is good. The past couple of months of support-raising for my staff position at JFA have been challenging, but also incredibly encouraging. In every conversation, I'm reminded of how blessed I am to do such important work with a team that is so devoted to loving people.

Mentoring at a seminar in Oklahoma in 2011

Despite the challenges, it's worth it to help students like Amanda who came to a JFA outreach earlier this year at Wichita State University. Little did she know when she walked up to our exhibit, that later that day she would help save a life. The amazing story is enclosed. Last weekend Amanda's impact continued as she went through our seminar to become even more prepared for her next conversation about abortion.

I'm looking forward to the monthly opportunity to update you, encourage you, and share prayer requests. Please pray for me as I continue to raise support this summer, especially for my trip to California from July 19 to August 12. Pray for all the details to work out and for it to be a productive time. - Tim Brahm
