

Reveal the Mystery Picture

We've Banished Ourselves to Texas Until Our Support Is Raised

STEPHEN WAGNER'S MONTHLY UPDATE

NOVEMBER 4, 2011

Dear Friend,

The mystery picture below captures the impact of our work with Justice For All. Here's how you can help us reveal it.

First, pray for us. We're spending the majority of November and December in Texas, where we have many support-raising meetings scheduled. We're asking God to help us schedule more meetings and to connect with the people He has prepared to support our work with JFA.

Second, if you receive our newsletter but haven't yet joined our support team, would you consider making a monthly commitment to partner with Rebecca and me? We're working to train pro-life advocates to create the sort of dialogue on abortion that changes minds, heals hearts, and saves lives. Look at the boxes to the right. Circle one and send this letter back with the enclosed coupon. Then check the updates at my blog, www.hbmm.net, to see the picture of impact emerge.

If you already partner with us financially, thank you! Please pray for us and check the web page regularly so you can see how God is meeting our need. Is there someone you know with whom you could share this letter (or the blog updates) to encourage them to consider our work?

Finally, if you live in Texas or know someone who does, would you consider helping us connect? We can meet with Sunday School classes, mission boards, small groups, or a group of friends gathered in a home. Rebecca and I can lead a workshop or give a demonstration of our work.

If you'd like to discuss these ideas or other ways we can work together to reveal this picture of impact, please contact me (commongroundwc@gmail.com).

With thanks for your partnership,

Stephen
